

Basic Detail Report

---

Necklace

Date
1880-1912

Medium
metal, garnets

Description
Gold and garnets; 'chain' formed from garnet in a pattern:

two circular garnets and one pointed oval formed of metal with three tiny garnets within, repeating; front of necklace is made up of four small gold branches that have ovalar garnet leaves on either side; these are interspersed with shapes that look like sword blades (they have tiny garnets within); a large circular garnet is in the center of the whole arrangement; five teardrop garnets hang from the bottom of the arrangement: bottom center, one on each side, and one in between the center and outside garnets (on each side); two small garnets on the clasp to hide it ---- Brought to US in 1912 by Julka Haskova Havron, Leo's mother ----

Dimensions
Overall: 8 in. (20.3 cm)