

Basic Detail Report

---

Uniform

Medium

textile, metal, paper

Description

Parts of a police uniform; olive green jacket with three gold buttons for closure (the buttons have stars stamped on them); there are two pockets at the top of the jacket front and two larger pockets at the bottom, all with the same gold buttons; a red band of fabric is attached to each shoulder and has four gold star pins with a circular pin nearest the neckline (this pin has a star stamped on it); the cuffs have two gold buttons each for decoration (with stars stamped on them); the left cuff also has a paper label attached to it that reads "Kras" and possibly lists the size and other information Olive green cap with a start-shaped pin in red and silver on the front tip; the hammer and sickle Russian symbol is on the pin; the cap is folded and resembles that of a diner worker in style; the cap comes to a tip on the front and back, due to its folds; a brown leather band lines the cap; Russian words are printed on the inside of the cap; the number "56" is also printed on the inside of the cap Olive green cap with brown brim and a band of red fabric just above brim; a small crest-shaped pin in red and gold is in the middle of the red band of fabric; a lion is on the pin; a brown leather band is held onto the front of the cap with a gold grommet on each end of the leather band; the leather band is just above the brim; the cap is molded in the fashion of a policeman's cap; a diamond-shaped red, blue and white label is sewn inside the cap that reads, "Kras Narodni Podnik, BRNO"; the number "57" is also on this label; a leather band lines the inside of the cap Given to Gail; no paperwork; not sure of the exact date it was given

Dimensions

Overall: 32 3/4 in. (83.2 cm)