

Basic Detail Report

---

Kroj

Date

1910-1930

Medium

textile

Description

Parts of a Kyjov kroj; white linen blouse; drawstring neck, puff sleeve drawn up with white cotton twill drawstring at bottom and edged with black cotton embroidery and cut work; black and white lace finishes bottom edge of sleeves; handmade. Red-orange wool/cotton blend felt skirt for woman's Kyjov style kroj; green, yellow and white floral embroidered motif throughout; blue cotton cambric lined; fushia and green metal sequins and opaque glass and clear glass seed beads at gathered waistband; black cotton bias tape ties at waist; panel construction; hand and machine sewn. Vest; woven red striped brocade edged with yellow rick-rack; machine embroidered green floral ribbon around sleeve and neck; machine embroidered red floral fibbon at front center; hook and eye closures; glass buttons at front for decoration. Lined with white cambric; bottom inside edge has a band of olive drab cotton twill tape. ---- Stamp lining: three locations "Pujcovna . Plsen Sol 17"; "48". Capj; white synthetic fabric heavily embroidered with red, blue, and green and beaded with metal and colored glass bugle beads; blue, red, green, yellow, embroidered flowers; many colors and sizes of beads applied; gathered at base; self-drawstring pocket; white crochet lace edges front of cap; crown is unlined; white polyester, cotton, and ? blend fabric lines interior of opening; reconstruction of Kyjov style; white fabric ties (nylon, ?) ---- Kyjov style, but not Kyjov-Dr. J. Langhammerova, 05/16/1997 ---- Altered on 05/16 /1997 by Dr. J. Langhammerova, National Museum, Prague to include: C.2B.30 (bonnet), C.2E.43 (neck scarf); C.2C.116 (blouse); C.2C.115 (skirt); C.2C.117 (vest)-outfit is incomplete ---- Reconstruction of a 19th century Kyjov style" Dr. Langhammerova 5-16-97 ---- White linen collar for woman's Kyjov Kroj; black embroidered design; edged with black and white cotton lace; one edge plain; machine sewn ---- Outfit is incomplete

Dimensions

Overall: 20 1/2 in. (52.1 cm)