Description

long piece of sheer cloth; light brown with metallic gold trim on each side; series of horizontal stripes at one end in dark mauve, dark green, light blue and metallic gold; gold flowers outlined in the mauve and green in some of the wider stripes; same gold flowering extends for roughly

36 inches past the stripes; one or two is stitched throughout the rest of the fabric until reaching the opposite end, which has a series of metallic gold stripes again; could be a shawl or something, but it's so long
