Description

long piece of sheer cloth; light blue with metallic gold trim on each side; series of horizontal stripes at one end in dark red, dark green and metallic gold; small gold designs embroidered in the widest red stripe; same gold design extends for roughly 31 inches past the stripes; a row of them is stitched periodically throughout the rest of the fabric until reaching the opposite end, which has a series of metallic gold stripes again; could be a shawl or something, but it's so long
