

Blouse

Medium

textile

Description

White blouse with red and black cross-stitching at neck, down front, on shoulders and cuffs; the collar is a fold-down that is entirely covered with the cross-stitching (geometric design) with off-white lace around the bottom edge; the cross-stitching continues 2/3rds of the way down the front of the blouse from the neckline; the stitching is a vertical narrow band on each side of the front opening with off-white lace on each edge (of front opening); the shoulders are gathered and accompanied by small rectangular bands of cross-stitching; the cuffs have the stitching all the way around their diameter and then on the fabric ruffle that hangs at the bottom of each cuff; off-white lace is at the bottom edges of the cuff ruffles; the blouse is gathered on the front on either side of the collar; two hook and eye closures are at the neckline ---- ----

Dimensions

Overall: 18 in. (45.7 cm)