

Basic Detail Report

Marionette

Date

2002

Medium

wood, textile, string, wire, wicker

Description

Female puppet with a navy dress and apron; the dress is plain, save a random striped pattern on the sleeves and bodice; a white zig-zag cord also goes from neckline to waistline with an off-white button at its top; the apron is a lighter navy and has a white print upon it (dots and flowers); the apron also has a small pocket just off center with white lace at its top; the apron ties with a white ribbon around the waist; a red satin-like petticoat is beneath the dress; the wooden legs are flesh-colored with black shoes; the puppet carries a wicker basket in its right hand; the hair is a grayish-blond and is made from some kind of straw-like substance and attached to the wooden head; the puppet has blue eyes and pinkish lips; it has a line on each side of the mouth and some on the cheeks by the ears; the puppet wears brass wire glasses ----- Each puppet has a long brass wire extending upward out of its head; the wire bends around at its top and has a piece of wood attached to it; four black strings hang between the wood and wire and the puppet's hands and legs ----- Each puppet was purchased around 2002 and has a value of $12 U.S. dollars

Dimensions

Overall: 20 in. (50.8 cm)