

Basic Detail Report

Dish, Candy

Medium

glass

Description

Red enamel ware candy dish; top is larger in diameter than the bottom; lip painted with half-circle gold section that extends half way down the dish and finishes in scallops on the front and back of the dish; the sides are painted with a checked pattern (turned on side to form diamonds); various raised flouishes painted throughout; the front and back have an identical floral design; flowers are all applied; the central one is pink and the largest with six petals; on either side is a five-petaled blue daisy;

beneath are two five-petaled yellow daisies; each has a tiny gold center; the pink has a circle of tiny gold dots around the center; the group is surrounded by twelve leaves painted in white, green and yellow; on either side at the top of the group is a thin green stem with small pink circles along its length; there are two rings of gold painted around the dish's base; rectangular gold sticker on bottom reads, Bohemia crystal, made in Czechoslovakia; logo

Dimensions

Overall: 5 in. (12.7 cm)