

Basic Detail Report

Plate

Medium

ceramic

Description

large, white plate with a border of floral designs and a pastoral scene in its center; flowers and leaves are in red, yellow, purple, blue, orange, and green; outer border is red, yellow and blue; inner border is dark blue, yellow and orange; a scroll is painted at the bottom of the plate, interrupting the border pattern; Orče náš, jenž isi na nebesích, translates to Oh father, who art in heaven, is painted within; scene is of an old man in Moravian garb, kneeling before a large crucifix in the middle of a pasture; many sheep piled behind him and two at his right side; blue mountains and sky in the background; wire loop inserted into a narrow hole in the back; green stamp in center reads Czechoslovakia with crowned eagle logo; a man's Moravian hat and cane are drawn above the stamp with three lines of words in Czech (illegible for the most part)

Dimensions

Other: 12 in. (30.5 cm)