

Pitcher

Medium

ceramic

Description

mottled dark mauve pitcher with bird handle painted in gold enamel; portrait on side opposite handle of woman riding an animal that looks like a llama wearing a unicorn horn; the woman wears a yellow toga; the animal is tan and white and looks surprised; the background is full of trees; the portrait is outlined with gold enamel wisps; two gold enamel rigs are painted around the pitcher's base, as well as its top edge; green stamp on the bottom has a crown and R C; blue stamp reads Austria with a triangle; #249 appears to be handwritten on bottom

Dimensions

6.5 × 4.5 × 3 in. (16.5 × 11.4 × 7.6 cm)