

Vest

Medium

textile

Description

dark red-pink vest with black edging around its unevenly cut bottom edge; top half of the front is covered with horizontal lines of silver sequins with lavender, red, orange and light green stitching in between; there is also a narrow length of silver cording; these all extend up the straps and decorated a small piece of fabric on the front of the vest; the neckline is lined with silver lace and yellow rick rack; six or seven holes for lacing up either side of the front; the sequins, stitching and cording cover the back of the vest; pink and light green ribbons are laced through grommets in the center of the back